BECOMING A HUMANE SOCIETY POLICE OFFICER IN PENNSYLVANIA IS NOT JUST A JOB, BUT A CAREER WITH ANIMALS. THIS COURSE IS THE MANDATED BASIC TRAINING FOR ALL ASPIRING HSPO'S IN PENNSYLVANIA. ALL GRADUATES MUST BE EMPLOYED BY OR VOLUNTEER FOR A NON-PROFIT ANIMAL PROTECTION ORGANIZATION AS DEFINED IN TITLE 22 CHAPTER 37 PRIOR TO BEING AWARDED OFFICIAL CREDENTIALS AND WORKING AS AN HSPO. (STUDENTS DO NOT NEED TO BE EMPLOYED BY OR VOLUNTEER FOR A NON-PROFIT AT THE TIME OF COURSE ATTENDANCE).

The Pennsylvania Academy for Animal Care and Control is the first and only private training and education company of its kind in Pennsylvania dedicated to professional animal incident response and investigation. The animal welfare, animal control, and animal cruelty investigative field has grown into a true profession and career, but it's not enough anymore to simply love animals and want to be around them every day as your source of employment. One must be properly trained and educated in our complicated animal laws. Humane Society Police Officers are charged in enforcing all violations of Pennsylvania's Cruelty to Animals Statute (Title 18, Ch. 55 Subchapter B) from summary offenses through felonies. This is a serious occupation and requires serious training. Congratulations on taking this important first step to a rewarding career! This course, although MANDATED to become a sworn Humane Society Police Officer in Pennsylvania, either part is also available to anyone who wishes to further their professional development in the field of animal welfare or animal control. Part I is highly recommended as a basic criminal investigation course for animal incidents for those who not previously received their basic training in this field through the PAACC, as this is an intensive Pennsylvania-specific course.
